

We are working diligently with all of the sending district towns and look forward to keeping you informed about their individual local plans for distribution of the H1N1 vaccine in their area. As we learn additional information, we will be providing it to our school community in an effort to assist families. At this time, we have specific information on some areas and have provided contact information for those towns that have not yet formalized and communicated their plans.

Important Information for H1N1 Clinics and Town Plans

Wednesday, January 06, 2010

Norton, Jan 16th from 9a.m.-12 noon. Henry Yelle School at 64 West Main St. Norton.
Attleboro January 9th 10-12pm Attleboro High School. Open to anyone 2 years and older

Tuesday, January 05, 2010

Easton, Jan 7th from 4p to 8 pm at the Olmstead-Richardson school
Stoughton, Jan 7th from 3p to 5p. Stoughton Town Hall (Basement). Vaccine in the form of flu mist.
Mansfield, Jan 11th from 4p to 8pm at the high school
Foxboro, Jan 21st from 4p to 8 pm at the high school
Plainville, Jan 23rd from 9am to 1pm at the Jackson school.

Wednesday, December 9, 2009

Plainville Resident Students

Please call Cathy Alix 5080-543-2508 ext 360 for pre-registration prior to December 11th

Attleboro Resident Students

Please email cityofattleboronurse@gmail.com or contact Jacqueline O'Brien 508-223-2222 ext 3244

Mansfield Resident Students

Please call: Pat Harrison 508-261-7559 for upcoming clinics

North Attleboro Resident Students

Please call: Ann Marie Flemming 508-699-0104 for upcoming clinics

Norton Resident Students

Please call: Donna Palmer 508-285-0263 for more information

Sharon Resident Students

Please call: Sheila Miller 781-784-1500 for upcoming clinics

For more information about H1N1 vaccine and prevention measures, please visit our website at www.foxboroughrcs.org

Cathy Alix RN